

WHITE ROCK ENDURO

March 18th 2007

This is the 33rd Anniversary of the race at White Rock. This years' race will cover up to 75 miles of scenic but challenging trails through the Ozark National Forest of Northwest Arkansas. The White Rock Enduro is sponsored by the Razorback Riders and the Blackjack Enduro Circuit (BJEC). This event will be a BJEC points race for active BJEC card holders. Riders without BJEC cards are encouraged to ride in this event and to join the BJEC and the American Motorcycle Association (AMA).

DIRECTIONS

Hwy 16 East out of Fayetteville to Combs, turn right at the signs and follow the arrows. From I40, North on Hwy 23 to East 16 Hwy, to Combs, turn left, follow arrows.

REQUIREMENTS FOR RIDING THIS EVENT

The race will be governed by BJEC and AMA semi-professional rules. All riders under 21 years of age must have a signed consent of a parent or guardian. This waiver must be signed by all Riders. All motorcycles must have a silencer and US Forestry approved spark arrester. All rows have up to 4 riders. Post marks will determine row number. If requested row is unavailable, the closest open row will be assigned. Riders wishing to ride on the same row should make sure that all their entry forms are sent in together.

CAMPING INFORMATION

Camp speed limit is 5 mph. Camp is located at the same location as last year. Primitive camping available. Fayetteville is the nearest town with accommodations. Several hotels are available at the intersection of Arkansas Hwy 62 and I540 in Fayetteville.
